The first annual general meeting shall be called within three (3) months of the date of registration of the Declaration and, subsequently, within six (6) months of the end of each fiscal year of the Corporation. At any such meeting, any owner or any mortgagee entitled to vote shall have an opportunity to raise any matter relevant to the affairs and business of the Corporation.

4.2 Special Meeting. The Board or any mortgagee holding mortgages on not less than fifteen percent (15%) of the units shall have the power at any time to call a special meeting of the owners of the Corporation to be held at such time and at such place within the said municipality as may be determined by the Board. The Board shall also call such special meeting upon receipt of requisition in writing made by owners of the Corporation who together own fifteen percent (15%) of the units within thirty-five (35) days of the receipt of such requisition. If the Board does not within thirty (35) days from the date of such notice call such meeting, any of the owners or mortgagees who gave such notice may call such meeting which shall be held within forty-five (45) days from the date of the receipt of the requisition. The requisition shall state the nature of the business to be presented at the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the address of service of the Corporation.

The Corporation shall not be obliged to give notice to any owners who have not notified the Corporation that they have become an owner or to any mortgagees who have not notified the Corporation that either have become a mortgagee and have been authorized or empowered in their mortgage to exercise the right of the mortgagor to vote. Notice of meetings as hereinbefore required shall have appended to it an agenda of matters to be considered at such meeting. The Board shall, fifteen (15) days or more before each annual meeting of owners, send by prepaid mail or deliver to all owners or mortgagees entitled to vote at their latest address as shown on the Register a copy of the financial statement and the auditor's report.
- 4.4 Reports. A copy of the minutes of meeting of owners and of the Board shall, within ten (10) days of the date of such meeting, be furnished to any mortgagee who has requested the same.
- 4.5 Persons Entitled To Be Present. The only persons entitled to attend a meeting of owners shall be the owners and mortgagees entered on the Register, and any others entitled to vote thereat and the auditor of the Corporation and the directors and officers of the Corporation and others who, although not entitled to vote, are entitled or required under the provisions of the Act or the by-laws of the Corporation to be present at the meeting. Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the chair of the meeting or with the consent of the meeting.
- 4.6 Quorum. At any meeting of owners, a quorum shall be constituted when persons entitled to vote and owning not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the units are present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting. If thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of any meeting of owners, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be dissolved and shall stand adjourned to such date, time and place as the Board shall determine.
- 4.7 Right to Vote. At each meeting of owners, every owner shall be entitled to vote, subject to the restrictions of Paragraph 4.13 herein set out, who is entered on the Register as an owner or who has given notice to the Corporation in a form satisfactory to the chair of the meeting that he or she is an owner. If a unit has been mortgaged and the person who mortgaged such unit (or that person's proxy) has expressly authorized or empowered the mortgagee to vote and exercise the right of the owner to vote in respect of such unit and such mortgagee has, at least four(4) days before the date specified in the notice for the meeting, notified the owner and the Corporation of its intention to exercise such right, such mortgagee shall be entitled to vote. Any dispute over the right to vote shall be resolved by the chair of the meeting upon such evidence as the chair may deem sufficient. Each owner or mortgagee shall be entitled to only one (1) vote per unit either on a vote by ballot or by a show of hands.
- 4.8 Method Of Voting. At any general or special meeting, any question shall be decided by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by an owner present in person or by proxy and, unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chair that such question has by the show of hands been carried is prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such question, but a demand for a poll may be withdrawn; provided however, that voting for the election of directors shall be by ballot only.
- 4.9 Representatives. An executor, administrator, committee of a mentally incompetent person, guardian or trustee (and, where a corporation acts in such capacity, any person duly appointed by proxy for such corporation) upon filing with the secretary of the meeting sufficient proof of its appointment, shall represent the owner or mortgagee at all meetings of the owners of the Corporation and may vote in the same manner and to the same extent as such owner. If there be more than one executor, administrator, committee, guardian or trustee, the provisions of paragraph 4.11 of this Article shall apply.
- 4.10 Proxies. Every owner or mortgagee entitled to vote at meetings of owners may by instrument in writing appoint a proxy, who need not be an owner or mortgagee, to attend and act at the meeting in the same manner, to the same extent and with the same power as if the owner or mortgagee were present at the meeting. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing signed by the appointor or that person's attorney authorized in writing. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited with the secretary of the meeting before any vote is cast under its authority.

- 4.11 Co-owners. If a unit or a mortgage on a unit is owned by two or more persons, any one of them present or represented by proxy may in the absence of the other or others vote, but if more than one of them are present or represented by proxy, they shall have only one (1) vote.
- 4.12 Votes To Govern. At all meetings of owners every question shall, unless otherwise required by the Act or the Declaration or by-laws be decided by a majority of the votes as set out in paragraph 4.8 of this section, duly cast on the question.
- 4.13 Entitled To Vote. Unless the requirement in connection with the specific matter upon which the vote is being taken stipulates that the resolution must be unanimous, no owner is entitled to vote at any meeting if any contributions to the Corporation payable in respect of that owner's unit are in arrears for more than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting.

All such deductibles to be paid by any owner or owners from time to time are deemed to be additional contributions toward the common expenses and recoverable as such from such owner or owners, or recoverable by any other procedure the Corporation elects.

13.2 Damage where no claim is made. In the event the Corporation determines in its sole and unfettered discretion, acting reasonably, that the loss is so minor that a claim should not be under the Corporation's insurance policy but that the loss has resulted from acts or omissions of the owner, or a tenant or occupant of the owner's unit, or any invitee thereof, the owner shall be required to pay the amount which is the lesser of the cost of repairing the damage and the deductible limit of the Corporation's insurance policy. The amount to be paid by such owner shall be deemed to be an additional contribution toward the common expenses and recoverable as such.

14. RULES

The rules shall be observed by the owners and occupants of the units.

14.2 Effective Date. Subject to paragraph 14.3 hereof any rule made by the Board shall be effective thirty (30) days after notice thereof has been given to each owner unless the Board is in receipt of a requisition in writing requiring a meeting of the owners to consider the rules.

14.3 When Approval Required. If a meeting of owners is required, the rule over which the meeting has been held shall become effective only upon approval at such meeting of owners.

APPENDIX "A" TO BY-LAW #1

ARTICLE 1 - PRE-MEDIATION PROCEEDINGS

17. PRE-MEDIATION PROCEEDINGS

- 17.1 Prior to submitting a dispute on any question or matter to a mediator appointed by the parties in accordance with Section 132 of the Condominium Act, 1998 as set forth below, and within fourteen (14) days of the dispute first arising, the unit owner (or unit owners) and the board of directors shall meet on at least one occasion, and shall use their best efforts to resolve the question or matter in dispute through good faith negotiations conducted at such meeting and, if the parties are unable to agree upon the selection of a neutral person who may be and include the Corporations'; property manager and/or a highly regarded member of the community, the meeting shall include such neutral person(s), all acting with a view to securing a resolution of the question or matter in dispute without further proceedings, including the conduct of mediation with the assistance of an outside mediator.
- 17.2 If one of the parties to the question or matter in dispute is unable or unwilling to participate in the initial meeting described in the preceding paragraph, then either party to the dispute may within five (5) business days give written notice to the other that it is submitting the question or matter in dispute to the mediation and arbitration procedures set forth below.
- 17.3 If the parties, having met and used their best efforts to resolve the question or matter in dispute through good faith negotiation, have been unable to resolve the question or matter in dispute, then either party may, thereafter, give notice to the other that it is submitting the question or matter in dispute to mediation.

18. MEDIATION

- 18.1 Within thirty (30) days following the giving of notice by one party to the other party or parties as set forth above, the question or matter in dispute shall be settled, initially, by mediation proceedings in accordance with Section 132 of the Condominium Act, 1998.
- 18.2 Selection and Role of Mediator: The party serving notice of mediation shall set forth in the notice to the other party the names, qualification and experience of two or more mediators from whom the other party may select one, or alternatively, may furnish the first party its own list of two or more persons qualified to act as mediator, and within seven (7) days thereafter, the parties shall communicate directly with one another to select a mediator. If the parties are unable to agree upon the selection of a mediator within seven (7) days or within such longer period of time as may be agreeable to the parties, then the appointment of a mediator shall be conducted by application by notice of motion to a judge of the Ontario Court of Justice who shall select an arbitrator and whose sole determination shall be final and binding upon the parties.
- 18.3 The mediator selected by the parties or, failing their agreement, appointed by notice of motion to a judge of the Ontario Court of Justice, shall not have had any current or past relationship of any kind with any of the parties that might otherwise give rise to justifiable doubts as to his or her impartiality or independence in assuming a neutral role as a mediator to assist the parties in the resolution of their dispute.
- 18.4 The mediator's role is to assist the parties to negotiate a resolution of their dispute. The mediator will not make decisions for the parties about how the matter should or must be resolved.
- 18.5 Party Confidentiality: The parties to the question or matter in dispute acknowledge that mediation is a confidential settlement process, and that they are participating in the process with the understanding that anything discussed in the mediation cannot be used in any other proceeding.
- 18.6 Pre-mediation information: Each of the parties shall provide to the mediator a brief description of the dispute in writing in order to facilitate a more complete understanding of the controversy and the issues to be mediated not less than two (2) days prior to the first mediation session, which date the mediator shall have authority to establish at the earliest possible and convenient date to the parties.

- 18.7 Authority to Settle: The parties or those representing them at the mediation shall have full, unqualified authority to settle the controversy.
- 18.8 Mediator Confidentiality: The mediator shall not disclose to anyone who is not a party to the mediation anything said or any materials submitted to the mediator except when ordered to do so by judicial authority or where required to do so by law.
- 18.9 Legal Representation: The parties may seek legal representation or advice prior to or during the mediation. They may have lawyers present at the mediation, if they so desire. If the mediator selected by the parties is a qualified lawyer, he or she will not provide legal representation or legal advice to any party at any time, and the mediator has no duty to assert or protect the legal rights and responsibilities of any party, or to raise any issue not raised by the parties themselves, or to determine who should participate in the mediation.
- 18.10 Right to Withdraw: In accordance with Section 132 of the Condominium Act, 1998, it is mandatory that each party to the dispute attend the initial mediation session. Prior to such attendance, each party shall provide the mediator with a brief description of the dispute in writing. Subject to the foregoing requirements, each party shall be entitled to withdraw at and from the initial mediation session.
- 18.11 Cost of the Mediation: In accordance with Section 132 of the Condominium Act, 1998, each party shall pay the share of the mediator's fees and expenses that the settlement specifies, if a settlement is obtained, or the mediator specifies in the notice stating that the mediation has failed, if the mediation fails.
- 18.12 Notice and Report: In the event that the parties are unable, with the assistance of the mediator, to settle their dispute, the mediator shall deliver a notice to the parties stating that the mediation has failed, and the parties shall thereafter resolve their dispute by arbitration under the Arbitration Act, 1991 and in the manner set forth below.
- 18.13 Settlement: In accordance with Section 132 of the Condominium Act, 1998, upon obtaining a settlement between the parties with respect to the disagreement submitted to mediation, the mediator shall make a written report of the settlement which shall form part of the agreement or matter that was the subject of the mediation.
